- 16.3 In the event of death of a joint account holder (except in the case of Joint Accounts designated as trust or executors' accounts), the Bank shall be entitled to hold the amount standing to the credit of the Joint Account for the benefit and to the order of the surviving account holder(s) (regardless of the terms of the Account mandate), provided that this is subject to the rights of the Bank in respect of such funds arising out of any lien, charge, pledge, set-off or any other encumbrance or any claim or counterclaim actual or contingent or otherwise, as well as to take such steps it deems desirable (including making payment(s) into a court of competent jurisdiction) in relation to the credit balance. Any payment made by the Bank to such surviving account holder(s) or to a court of competent jurisdiction shall constitute a complete discharge of the Bank's obligations binding on all the account holders and their personal representatives and successors.
- 16.4 Where a cheque is payable to any one or more of the account holders of a Joint Account, the Bank may (but is not obliged to) accept the cheque for deposit into the Joint Account without endorsement by any of the account holders. 2 Your Relationship with the Bank in relation to Investments and Transactions

2.1 If it is agreed between you and the Bank that the Bank will not provide you with any financial advice or recommendations concerning the appropriate financial products for you, or if you have opted to purchase financial products which are not recommended by the Bank, or if you have been onboarded as an Accredited Investor as defined under the Securities and Futures Act 2001, the following provisions are important and you are requested to read them carefully and understand their implications for you before dealing with the Bank in relation to any Investment or Transaction. You hereby represent, warrant and agree that:

- (a) unless the Bank has specifically agreed in writing to provide you with advisory services in relation to Investments and Transactions, the Bank provides an “execution-only” service in relation to Investments and Transactions and neither the Bank nor its Personnel will act as your fiduciary or financial or investment adviser or legal or tax adviser, or shall owe any duty of care and skill in relation to any decision on the acquisition, holding or disposal of an Investment or Transaction;
- (b) the Bank and its Personnel are not obliged to provide you with any advice or recommendation in relation to any Investment or Transaction;
- (c) you will be responsible for making your own independent investigation and appraisal assessment of each and every Investment or Transaction, and all decisions with respect to investing in, holding or disposing of any Investment or entering or determination not to enter into or unwinding or maintaining any Transaction are yours;
- (d) you are solely responsible for familiarising yourself with all the terms and conditions of each of the Investments and the risks involved;
- (e) prior to giving the Bank any Instruction to acquire an Investment or enter into a Transaction, you have, where applicable, received the prospectus, offering document or product documentation, have read and understood the material terms and conditions, have sufficiently informed yourself and know the risks inherent in the Investments you are acquiring or Transactions you are entering into (which may result in a partial or total loss of your investment) and that your application for any Investment or entering into any Transaction is not in breach of such terms and conditions;

(f) the Bank may from time to time provide you directly or indirectly with reports, analyses, other materials and/or information (“Materials”) in relation to an Investment or Transaction (or proposed Investment or Transaction), in which case you acknowledge and agree that:

- (i) all Materials are provided to you strictly for your own use and shall not be passed on to any other persons;
- (ii) the Materials and the provision thereof shall not constitute an offer or invitation to you to acquire any Investment or enter into any Transaction;
- (iii) the Bank is not obliged to provide you with any Materials; and
- (iv) if the Bank does provide the Materials, such Materials are (unless otherwise specifically indicated by the Bank) not provided with any specific customer or classes of customers in mind, and they are to be treated as general views and opinions, which may not be suitable for use by you without independent verification;

(g) you will only acquire an Investment or enter into a Transaction on the basis of your own independent review and determination that the Investment or Transaction is consistent with your objectives and are appropriate and suitable investments for you in light of your financial positions, investment objectives, investment experience and knowledge;

(h) you have sufficient knowledge and sophistication to independently appraise and understand, and before acquiring an Investment or entering into a Transaction, you will have fully understood, the economic, legal, accounting and tax, merits, risks, characteristics, terms and conditions and consequences of the Investment or Transaction;

(i) all Investments and Transactions will be made or entered into solely upon and in reliance on your own judgment and discretion, notwithstanding any opinion, commentary, observation, advice or recommendation that the Bank or its Personnel may provide to you;

(j) you shall not rely on the Bank or its Personnel or on any opinion, commentary, observation, advice or recommendation provided by the Bank or its Personnel; and

(k) unless the Bank has specifically agreed in writing to provide you with advisory services in relation to Investments and Transactions, in providing any opinion, commentary, observations, advices or recommendations, the sole duty of the Bank and its Personnel is to be honest, and the Bank and its Personnel shall incur no liability for any opinion, commentary, observation, advice or recommendation that was provided or for the performance or outcome of any Investment made by you, irrespective of whether or not any opinion, commentary, observation, advice or recommendation was provided at your request. Accordingly, any and all risks associated with and any Losses suffered as a result of your entering into any Investment or Transaction are for your account.

2.2 References to “you” in Clause 2.1 above shall where the context permits include references to your professional advisers.

2.3 If it is agreed between you and the Bank that the Bank will provide you with financial advice and/or recommendations concerning the appropriate financial product for you, you shall be bound by the agreements, acknowledgments, declarations and confirmations set out in the Personal Financial Solution which you signed as part of the Bank's financial advisory process.

- 2.4 You further represent, warrant and agree that:
- (a) by entering into any Investment or Transaction, you shall be bound by all relevant terms and conditions set out in the relevant prospectus, offering document or product documentation;
 - (b) where the Bank is not the issuer, the Bank accepts no responsibility with respect to any published statement and information contained in any prospectus, offering document or product documentation concerning any Investment and the Bank makes no representations or warranties as to and accepts no responsibility for the performance or future performance of any Investment or Transaction; and
 - (c) (unless the Bank otherwise agrees in writing) all Transactions and Investments are made by you as principal for your own personal account and not on behalf of any other third parties.
- 2.5 You acknowledge and agree that, in providing services to you in respect of Investments and Transactions, the Bank assumes the correctness of, and materially relies on, the representations and agreements set out in this Clause.

3 Transaction Services

- 3.1 You may instruct the Bank to and the Bank may, as your agent, enter into Transactions and/or acquire, dispose of or redeem Investments.
- 3.2 Instructions will be accepted by the Bank on such days and during such times as the Bank may determine from time to time. Where Instructions are received by the Bank too close to or after the cut-off time for the execution of the relevant Transaction, the Bank may execute the Transaction on the following Business Day without any notice to you and without any liability to you or any other party whatsoever. You accept that there may be circumstances where the Bank may not be able to act or there may be a delay in the Bank acting on your Instructions due to unforeseeable contingencies such as unscheduled bank holidays or suspension of banking activities directed by any governmental authority, monetary authority (including the Monetary Authority of Singapore) or other regulatory authority in any country, in which case the Bank shall not be responsible or liable to you or any other party howsoever for any Losses resulting from the Bank's inability to act or delay in acting on your Instructions.
- 3.3 The Bank may also, in its discretion, opt to transact with you as your counterparty on a principal-to-principal basis in relation to any Investment or Transaction PROVIDED THAT where required to do so by Applicable Laws, the Bank will notify you in advance where this is the case. Unless required by Applicable Laws, the Bank shall not be required to inform you of whether it transacts as agent or principal.
- 3.4 Even where the Bank is acting as your agent in relation to an Investment or Transaction, in view of the fact that the Bank may have responsibility as principal and/or liability to another broker or other third party, you acknowledge that this may in some instances result in prejudice to you. You acknowledge and accept that this is a necessary risk of transacting with or through the Bank.
- 3.5 The Bank may cancel, terminate, reverse or close out any open Transaction, in whole or in part, if:
- (a) you fail to provide any information requested by the Bank pursuant to these Conditions;
 - (b) the Bank determines that the Transaction would not be fully compliant with all Applicable Laws;
 - (c) the Bank determines the Transaction is not appropriate or suitable for you; or
 - (d) the Bank decides that this is necessary or desirable to avoid injury to the commercial reputation of the Bank.

- 3.6 The rights of the Bank in Clause 3.5 above shall be in addition to and not in lieu of any other right of cancellation, termination, reversal or close-out of any Transaction that the Bank may otherwise have.
- 3.7 Nothing in these Conditions obliges the Bank to act for you or to enter into any Transaction, and the Bank may, in its sole and absolute discretion, refuse to act for you or enter into any Transaction.
- 3.8 If the Bank declines to carry out your order or proceed with any Investment or Transaction, the Bank will endeavour to notify you as soon as reasonably practicable, but shall not be required to provide any reason. If any order is not carried out or any Investment or Transaction is not proceeded with for any reason, the Bank is entitled to refund to you all subscriptions, purchases or other monies paid to or received by the Bank in connection with your order (after deducting any cost and expense incurred by the Bank in processing your order) in such manner as the Bank may deem fit, and you shall not be entitled to any interest or other returns on such monies.
- 3.9 If the Bank agrees to act on any Instruction, the Bank shall use its reasonable efforts to carry out such Instruction within a reasonable time, having regard to the nature of the Investment or Transaction in question, the systems and operations of the Bank and other relevant circumstances, and the Bank shall not be liable for any Losses arising thereof. The Bank does not guarantee that an Instruction to enter into or unwind a Transaction or to acquire, dispose of or redeem an Investment will necessarily be carried out.
- 3.10 The Bank will endeavour to obtain the best possible results for your orders, subject to and taking into account any specific instructions from you, the nature of the orders and the nature of the markets, and the products concerned. Where best execution is applicable, the Bank will take all reasonable steps to achieve 'Best Execution' and to obtain the best possible result for its clients. For more information, please refer to the Bank's Best Execution Policy Disclosure Statement (accessible at www.maybank2u.com.sg).

4 Aggregation and Splitting of Orders

- 4.1 To the extent permitted by Applicable Laws, the Bank may for the purposes of execution:
- (a) split your order into smaller orders; or
 - (b) aggregate your order with any order from another client or the Bank itself or any affiliate of the Bank.
- 4.2 You acknowledge that such actions may operate on some occasions to your advantage and on other occasions to your disadvantage and that orders may be partially executed only. Hence, you may not be allocated the full quantum which you had requested for. The Bank will not accept requests to alter or waive any allocation.
- 4.3 Although the Bank will endeavour to make any allocation required in relation to Investments amongst its relevant clients pro-rata as far as possible, the Bank reserves the right to make allocations in such manner as it determines to be appropriate in its reasonable discretion.
- 4.4 Instructions to the Bank to acquire or dispose of any Investment or enter into or unwind any Transaction are irrevocable, and any allocation given to you shall be binding on you, notwithstanding any change in market conditions between the time of the Instructions and the time of allocation.

5 Execution Venues

Transactions may be executed on any market that the Bank considers appropriate. Subject to Applicable Laws, the Bank may execute Transactions outside of a regulated market or make use of any internal crossing facility if it considers that this will be a more appropriate execution option.

6 Conditions Precedent to the Bank Entering into a Transaction or Executing an Order

- 6.1 Without prejudice to Clause 3.7 above, the Bank may decline to carry out an order or proceed with any Investment or Transaction:
- (a) where the aggregate of all orders received by the Bank and/or any other person fails to exceed any minimum subscription amount or other threshold as the Bank (or the issuer of or counterparty for such Investment or Transaction) may determine;
 - (b) if your Instructions do not comply with any term or condition of the Investment or Transaction; or
 - (c) for any other reason the Bank deems fit,
- and the Bank shall not incur any liability to you for such refusal to act and/or proceed with any Investment or Transaction.
- 6.2 You agree and acknowledge that the issuer or distributor of any Investment may have reserved the right to cancel a proposed issue of any Investment or to adjust the duration of any initial offer of such Investment. In the event of a cancellation of the proposed issue of an Investment or adjustment of the duration of an initial offer of the Investment, you agree that the Bank shall have no liability to you if any order placed by you cannot be fulfilled as a result thereof.
- 6.3 The agreement of the Bank to execute any Transaction is subject to your giving any warranty and indemnity requested by the Bank in relation to such Transaction.
- 6.4 Prior to your entering into, or seeking to enter into, any Transaction with the Bank:
- (a) you must provide to the Bank on demand such information as the Bank may consider necessary or appropriate in connection with the proposed Transaction (including for the purpose of determining whether the Transaction is compliant with all Applicable Laws); and
 - (b) you confirm that you have received, read and understood the contents of the Risk Disclosure Statement set out in Annex 1 herein as well as such other relevant disclosure statements furnished to you by the Bank from time to time in respect of the relevant Investment.

7 Provisions relating to Execution and Settlement of Orders

- 7.1 Unless the Bank agrees otherwise, orders given are good only for the day.
- 7.2 Where you instruct the Bank to acquire Investments, you agree to pay the full amount of any Transaction, including any commissions, charges or fees payable to the Bank or its agents. The Bank may earmark and/or debit your Account(s) with the full or estimated amount of any Transaction contemplated herein (including any commissions, charges or fees payable to the Bank and any taxes or levies) before executing such Transaction, and the Bank shall have no duty to carry out any Instruction or Transaction until the Bank has been put in sufficient funds, PROVIDED THAT the Bank may in its absolute discretion (but need not) advance the amount of any payment to you in which case interest will be charged on any advance provided.
- 7.3 If at any time there are insufficient funds in any Account from which funds are to be earmarked and/or debited for the purposes of any Investment or Transaction, the Bank may in its absolute discretion:
- (a) decline to carry out the Investment or Transaction;
 - (b) (without any obligation to do so and without any further instruction from or notice from you) transfer funds as necessary from any other bank accounts that you maintain with the Bank;
 - (c) (but is not obliged to) sell or liquidate the investments which you had contracted to acquire at such price and in such quantities as the Bank may think fit and recover from you any Losses suffered or incurred by the Bank without any prejudice to any other right which the Bank may have against you; or

- (d) take such necessary action as the Bank may deem fit.

7.4 Unless the Bank otherwise agrees, all financial settlements resulting from dealings and custody of Investments and, if applicable, documents of title thereto shall be settled in freely available cleared funds, and unless otherwise instructed by you, payments, proceeds and distributions arising in respect of the Investments shall be paid into or out of (as the case may be) your Account.

7.5 If by the settlement date of a Transaction the Bank has not received unconditional payment of the relevant settlement amount, you agree:

- (a) to pay the Bank interest on any amount incurred by the Bank as a result, at such rate specified by the Bank, for each day until the Bank actually receives such outstanding amount in full;
- (b) to pay the Bank such amount as may be determined by the Bank from time to time to cover any Losses incurred or suffered by the Bank arising from such non-receipt; and
- (c) that the Bank may sell any Investment acquired on your behalf or held as custodian (except shares in the Bank itself) and may apply the proceeds of that sale (after deducting all costs and expenses incurred by the Bank) towards reducing your liability to the Bank.

7.6 The Bank will only effect orders for the disposal of Investments if such Investments are held in your Account free of all liens and encumbrances whatsoever or if you deliver such Investments to the Bank. In any event that you do not own sufficient Investments which you have contracted to sell, the Bank reserves the right (but is not obliged) to buy-in the Investments and/or to recover the Losses, if any, from you.

8 Transaction Confirmations and Account Statements

- 8.1 After a Transaction has been executed and in accordance with the requirements of Applicable Laws or as otherwise agreed with you, the Bank may issue you a confirmation, which may be in physical or electronic form.
- 8.2 The Bank shall provide you with periodic Account statements in accordance with Applicable Laws or as otherwise agreed with you. You acknowledge and agree that any valuation included in such statements represents an estimated, non-actionable, indicative valuation provided to you for general reference and information purposes only, and such valuations do not necessarily represent the actual prices at which the Investments or Transactions have been or may be entered into or unwound. In addition, markets for structured products and derivatives may not exist or may be illiquid, and therefore prices may not be representative or may not exist at all. As such, no warranty or representation is made as to the accuracy or completeness of any valuation in any Account statement, and the Bank shall not be liable for any Loss which may arise from any valuation provided.

9 Resale/Transfer Restrictions

You acknowledge and agree that an Investment may be offered or made available to you pursuant to an applicable prospectus exemption. In such case, you agree:

- (a) not to circulate or distribute any offering document, product documentation or other document or information received in relation to such Investment to any person; and
- (b) not to sell, or offer to sell, any such Investment or make such Investment the subject of any invitation for subscription or purchase to or by any person, other than in circumstances in which such circulation, distribution, offer, sale or invitation does not contravene any Applicable Law. You further agree to observe all other relevant transfer or resale restrictions (if any) which may be applicable to any Investment.

10 Investments Subject to Restrictions

You acknowledge that certain jurisdictions may restrict foreign ownership of certain Investments but the Bank shall have no duty to ascertain whether any Investment acquired (or held as custodian) are approved for foreign ownership or whether your acquisition thereof complies with such foreign ownership rules.

11 Powers and Authorities of the Bank in relation to Transactions and Investments

The Bank is authorised (but shall not be obliged) to exercise the following powers (either by itself or through its custodian or sub-custodian or any other agent) in its discretion without prior reference or notice to you:

- (a) to do anything necessary or desirable to comply with any Applicable Law;
- (b) to use the services of any agent of the Bank's choice (including the appointment of a custodian or sub-custodian on such terms as the Bank considers appropriate, including terms which allow the appointed custodian or sub-custodian to further sub-delegate the performance of some or all of its duties);

- (h) to consolidate any Investment held by you with Investments of other clients in order to qualify for any rights offered in respect of a specified block of Investments and, at the Bank's reasonable discretion, to take up, call for, receive, hold and sell any share or rights accruing by reason of such consolidation, and to acquire additional Investments or sell Investments in order to qualify for or maximise the benefit of any rights, option or distribution offered or made in connection with the Investments;

- (m) to set different Transaction limits for different types of Investments as the Bank deems appropriate.

12 General Lien

Without prejudice to the rights of the Bank at common law, the Bank shall have a first and general lien on all Investments held as your nominee, custodian, agent or otherwise on your behalf for any amount properly due from you to the Bank, and the Bank shall have the right, and is authorised, to the fullest extent permitted by law and without prior notice to you, to appropriate any Investment so held or to dispose of any Investment so held and apply the proceeds against any amount due from you to the Bank.

13 Consequences of Termination on Investments held by the Bank

- 13.2 If you fail to complete the necessary arrangements within thirty (30) days of such termination (or such other period as the Bank may notify you) in a manner reasonably acceptable to the Bank, the Bank shall be deemed to have been authorised by you (at your cost) to dispose of or redeem any Investment and you hereby authorise the Bank to give the necessary instructions to third parties on your behalf and to execute such documents and do all such other things as the Bank shall deem appropriate, and so long as the Bank acts in good faith, the Bank shall be under no liability for any Losses incurred or suffered by you as a result.

14 Fees, Charges and Costs

- 14.2 A certificate signed by a duly authorised officer or employee of the Bank shall be conclusive evidence of the amount of any cost and expense referred to in Clause 14.1 above, in the absence of manifest error.
- 14.3 Unless otherwise specified by the Bank, all fees, commissions and charges of the Bank are stated exclusive of GST (or other similar tax), and you agree to pay to the Bank any GST (or other similar tax) applicable to any service provided by the Bank in relation to any Investment or Transaction.

16 Representations and Warranties

You represent and warrant to the Bank that:

- (c) there are no proceedings (if any) pending or threatened against you at law or in equity or under statute or before any governmental authority which, if adversely determined against you, will in the aggregate materially impair your ability to perform your obligations under any Transaction, and there are no such proceedings which purport to affect the legality, validity or enforceability of the acquisition or holding of any Investment or your performance of any Transaction.

17 Client Money Rules

You hereby agree and direct the Bank that all monies arising from your Investments (including without limitation, money proceeds arising from disposal of an Investment and any interest, dividend, bonus and all other distributions, income and payments arising from or in connection with an Investment) which are received by the Bank (whether directly or from any nominee, sub-custodian or third party custodian) will be paid to you immediately by way of deposit to your Account, and thereupon such monies will not be held by the Bank subject to the client money rules in Part III Division 2 of the Securities and Futures (Licensing and Conduct of Business) Regulations.

18 Statutory Cancellation Rights Applicable to Certain Investments

In certain instances, you may have the right to cancel a purchase of your Investment pursuant to Applicable Laws. Where such a right applies, the Bank will provide you with a notice ("Notice of Cancellation Rights") regarding your right of cancellation and you will be able to cancel your purchase in accordance with the terms of the Notice of Cancellation Rights.

19 Short Sales

Without limiting the generality of any other provision of these Conditions, the Bank has the discretion not to accept or act on any short sale Instruction. If the Bank gives you notice that it will accept short sale Instructions, you must comply with all Applicable Laws in respect of the short selling of Investments. In particular, the Bank may require you to disclose and/or mark your short sale instructions in accordance with Applicable Laws and/or comply with such procedures and systems as the Bank may prescribe from time to time in its sole discretion.

20 Survivorship

In the case of a Joint Account held by two or more account holders, in the event of death of any of the joint account holders, any interest in any Investment held by the Bank, nominee depository or clearing agency on your behalf will accrue to the surviving joint account holder(s) without prejudice to any right that the Bank may have arising out of any lien, charge, pledge, set-off, counterclaim or otherwise whatsoever.

21 Definitions

"Applicable Laws" shall include all applicable laws, rules, regulations, customs, requirements, guidelines, constitutions and bye-laws of Singapore and any other applicable jurisdiction and/or the Monetary Authority of Singapore and any other applicable governmental or regulatory body and/or any exchange and/or market and/or central depository system and/or clearing house through which Transactions are executed and/or through which any Investment is acquired, held or disposed of and/or all orders, judgments, injunctions, decrees, determinations or awards of any court or any judicial, administrative or governmental body.

"Personnel" means any officer, employee, agent or representative of the Bank engaged or involved in the provision of Services to you in respect of any investment covered under this Section B (GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR INVESTMENT PRODUCTS).

"Transaction" means any transaction relating to an Investment.

SECTION C (CUSTODIAL SERVICES)

1 General

1.1 Without prejudice to the application of Section A (GENERAL TERMS) and Section B (GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR INVESTMENT PRODUCTS) of these Conditions, this Section C (CUSTODIAL SERVICES) contains specific terms relating to the custody of your Investments.

1.2 Unless the context otherwise requires or this Section expressly provides otherwise, all words and expressions as defined in Section B (GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR INVESTMENT PRODUCTS) of these Conditions shall have the same meanings when used or referred to in this Section.

2 Provision of Custodial Services

2.1 Unless other arrangements for the custody of your Investments have been agreed between you and the Bank, where an Investment is acquired by you which in the Bank's judgment is capable of being held in custody, the Bank will act as your custodian for such Investment in accordance with these Conditions. The Bank may also, in its discretion, agree to accept custody of Investments acquired by you otherwise than from or through the Bank upon the transfer of such Investments to the Bank.

2.2 Notwithstanding Clause 2.1 above, the Bank may in its sole discretion refuse acceptance of any of your Investments for custody and may return any of your Investments to you at any time without giving any reason or being liable for any Loss thereby occasioned to you and you shall accept and arrange to accept delivery of the same forthwith.

2.3 Notwithstanding Clause 2.1 above, the Bank may in its discretion arrange for a third party ("Third Party Custodian") to provide custodial services for your Investments, in which case the provisions of Clause 5 below shall apply.

2.4 You hereby agree that the Bank, as your custodian, shall be entitled to appoint or make use of:

- (a) one or more nominees or sub-custodians (or tiers of nominees or custodians) for the purposes of holding any or all your Investments;
- (b) the services and facilities of any person operating a depository or clearing system or any central depository or clearing house; or
- (c) administrators or agents to assist in the performance of its custodial services,

("Custodial Agents") on such terms as the Bank may, in its discretion, consider appropriate (including terms which allow Custodial Agents to further sub-delegate and to limit their liability), and where the Bank has exercised reasonable care and skill in the selection of any Custodial Agent, the Bank shall not be responsible to supervise any Custodial Agent or be liable or responsible for any act, omission, default, neglect, fraud, recklessness, breach or insolvency of any Custodial Agent in connection with the Investments in its custody.

2.5 By the Bank agreeing to act as your custodian or appointing a Third Party Custodian to provide custodial services for your Investments, you authorise the Bank to register and hold your Investments on your behalf in the Bank's name or in the name of any nominee, sub-custodian or Third Party Custodian on such terms as the Bank may determine. You hereby agree to pay all applicable fees and charges for the custodial services and authorise the Bank to debit such fees and charges from the Account.

3 The Bank's Powers as Custodian

3.1 You hereby appoint and authorise the Bank as custodian (but the Bank is not obliged) to perform (whether directly or indirectly or through any of the Custodial Agents) all or any of the following functions:

- (a) to arrange for all documents of title of Investments issued in bearer form to be deposited with the Bank's vault (in any country as the Bank thinks fit) or deposited for safekeeping with any Custodial Agent as the Bank may think fit;

- (b) to keep, or procure that its nominee or sub-custodian keeps, a record in its books of all Investments held from time to time as your custodian;
- (c) to do all acts as may be necessary or desirable in order to collect payment of all interests, dividends, bonuses and all other distributions, income and payments, whether paid in cash or in kind, on the Investments;
- (d) to exchange documents of title (including without limitation, the exchange of temporary documents of title for those in definitive form);
- (e) at the Bank's discretion, to pay or cause to be paid, any and all taxes or levies in the nature of taxes imposed on any of your Investments by any tax or governmental authority anywhere in the world (and whether or not such taxes or levies can be enforced against you, the Bank or any other person) PROVIDED THAT neither the Bank nor any Custodial Agent shall be liable for any tax or duty payable on or in respect of the Investments all of which shall be borne and promptly discharged by you;
- (f) at your request and upon the Bank's receipt of all necessary certificates and documents, to claim any withholding tax relating to the payment of any amount in relation to your Investments PROVIDED THAT the costs and expenses of the Bank or any Custodial Agent in attempting to recover such withholding tax shall be borne by you;
- (g) to exercise any right or discharge any obligation conferred or imposed by reason of the Bank's direct or indirect holding of your Investments and to investigate, participate or take any affirmative action in connection therewith or otherwise; and
- (h) to do all such other things necessary in connection with the custodial services as provided under these Conditions as the Bank may deem fit, including executing any document or doing all such acts as may be necessary or desirable in connection therewith.

3.2 To the extent that copies of notices, reports or other documents arising from the Investments are received by the Bank (directly or through a Custodial Agent), the Bank may, where it determines in its discretion that you should be notified of the same, as soon as reasonably practicable transmit to you the notice, report or other document. However, the Bank is under no duty or responsibility to send any such notices, reports or other documents to you or to notify you of the receipt of such notices, reports or other documents if it determines, in its sole discretion, that it is not necessary or is commercially impracticable.

3.3 The Bank's duty in respect of the custody of Investments shall be limited to acting as bare trustee and to exercising good faith and (subject always to the express provisions of these Conditions) the reasonable care and skill expected of a professional custodian in the position of the Bank in respect of any action taken (or not taken) in relation to its provision of custodial services. The Bank shall have no other fiduciary obligation or duty of care or skill to you in respect of your Investments except those expressly set out in these Conditions.

3.4 You shall only be entitled to the return (subject to these Conditions) and shall accept delivery or transfer of Investments of the same issuer, nominal amount, class and denomination as those of the Investment originally transferred to you and/or the Custodial Agent (or in the event of any change in the class and/or denomination of Investment, an Investment of equivalent class and/or denomination to that arising from the change). The Bank shall not in any case be liable and/or responsible for returning to you specific Investments traceable to those Investments originally transferred to the Bank or otherwise acquired by the Bank as your custodian.

- 3.5 You hereby acknowledge that prior to the Bank becoming the registered owner of any of the Investments, it may not be in a position to carry out all of the obligations that would otherwise be imposed upon it as custodian.
- 3.6 Although the Bank (and any Custodial Agent) act as custodians in respect of your Investments, you acknowledge that the name in which Investments are held need not disclose the custodial relationship where this is not the normal practice in particular markets.
- 3.7 As solely determined by the Bank or a Custodial Agent, Investments may be held on the basis that they are not capable of being separately identified as belonging to or being attributed to you. If an Investment is held on the basis that it is not capable of being separately identified, the Investment will be pooled so that those Investments which in the Bank's opinion are of the same nature or category are held together on a commingled basis. In this situation, your interest in the Investments may not be identifiable by separate certificates or other physical documents or equivalent electronic records, but the Bank will maintain a record of your interest in the Investments.
- 3.8 The Bank and the Custodial Agents are not obliged to (and generally will not) attend any meeting or exercise any of the powers or rights incidental to the ownership of the Investments (including any voting right in respect of the Investments held for you), save where the Bank may at its discretion act, at your expense, in accordance with your express Instructions upon such terms and conditions imposed by the Bank. PROVIDED THAT if the Bank has not received such Instructions from you, the Bank shall be entitled to deal with the above matters in such manner as the Bank may deem fit.
- 3.9 Neither the Bank nor the Custodial Agent is under a duty to examine or verify the validity of the ownership of or title to any of your Investments and the Bank and the Custodial Agent shall not be liable in respect of any defect in ownership or title or for the diminution in the value of any of your Investments.
- 3.10 Neither the Bank nor any Custodial Agent shall be required to take any legal or other action which may expose it to any liability or expense unless it is fully indemnified or covered to its reasonable satisfaction (as a pre-requisite to taking such action).
- 3.11 The Bank (itself or through any of the Custodial Agents) is not obliged but may, at its discretion and subject to any condition it may require, agree to provide custodial services for Investments which are not fully paid up. In such case, you shall indemnify the Bank and the Custodial Agent against all Losses which may be incurred by them as a result.
- 3.12 In providing its custodial services, the Bank and the Custodial Agent shall be entitled to:
- (a) observe and comply with all Applicable Laws (so that the Bank and the Custodial Agent shall be under no obligation to act in any manner which is in breach of Applicable Laws); and
 - (b) participate in and to comply with rules and regulations of any system which provides central clearing and settlement facilities in respect of Investments,
- and neither the Bank nor the Custodial Agent shall be liable for any Loss that may be incurred by you as a result thereof.
- 3.13 Without prejudice to the generality of the other Clauses in these Conditions, the Bank shall not be liable for Losses of any kind which may be incurred by you as a result of the provision of the custodial services by the Bank unless due to the negligence or wilful default of the Bank or any of its officers or employees.

4 Your Obligations and Undertakings

- 4.1 You shall from time to time furnish the Bank and/or any Custodial Agent with appropriate instruments and execute all such documents and do all such acts as may be necessary or desirable to enable the Bank to provide any custodial service to you.

- 4.2 You consent to the Bank maintaining your assets which are denominated in a foreign currency in a custody account with a Custodial Agent or a Third Party Custodian outside of Singapore which is licensed, registered or authorised to act as a custodian in the country or territory where the custody account is maintained. You acknowledge and agree that the Bank's agreements with a Custodial Agent or with a Third Party Custodian may be governed by laws other than Singapore law, and the provision of services by the Bank, any Custodial Agent and any Third Party Custodian may be subject to or affected by the provisions of laws other than Singapore law.

5 Third Party Custodial Arrangements

- 5.1 You acknowledge that a Third Party Custodian may refuse to provide custodial services for your Investments (for example, where your Investments do not meet the criteria specified by the Third Party Custodian). The Bank shall not be responsible for any Loss you may incur where the Bank is unable to arrange for such third party custodial arrangements, or where the Third Party Custodian terminates or suspends the third party custodial arrangements, for any reason.
- 5.2 You agree to and acknowledge the following in connection with the provision of custodial services by a Third Party Custodian:
- (a) the Bank has merely arranged for such services to be provided by the Third Party Custodian and PROVIDED THAT the Bank has exercised reasonable care and skill in the selection of the Third Party Custodian, the Bank is not bound to supervise the actions of the Third Party Custodian and the Bank shall not be liable for any Loss incurred by you arising in connection with or as a result of any act, omission, default, neglect, fraud, recklessness, breach or insolvency by the Third Party Custodian and/or any of its agents in providing custodial services;
 - (b) as part of a third party custodial arrangement, the Bank may arrange for the Investments to be held by the Third Party Custodian in an account in the Bank's name or the name of its nominee, but this in itself shall not be construed as the provision of custodial services by either the Bank or the nominee;
 - (c) all Instructions and queries relating to the holdings in the Investments should be addressed through the Bank. The Bank will pass on these Instructions and queries to the Third Party Custodian to process, in its capacity as custodian;
 - (d) the Third Party Custodian will provide custodial services in respect of the Investments based on the terms set out in the relevant custody agreement signed between the Third Party Custodian on one part and the Bank on the other part, and/or the general terms and conditions of the Third Party Custodian (each, a "Custody Agreement");
 - (e) you acknowledge that the execution of your Instructions may be subject to terms and conditions imposed by the Third Party Custodian;
 - (f) the Bank shall have the right to change the Third Party Custodian from time to time and/or amend the Custody Agreement(s) from time to time; and
 - (g) where required under any Applicable Law, the Bank shall disclose the terms of the Custody Agreements that the Bank has entered into (as may be amended from time to time) in such manner as the Bank may at its discretion deem appropriate (including but not limited to, setting out on the Bank's website).

ANNEX 1

RISK DISCLOSURE STATEMENT ("Statement")

1 OVERVIEW

- 1.1 This Statement seeks to provide you with an overview of some of the major risks associated with your Investments and Transactions. It does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all the significant risks or other aspects of your Investments and Transactions.
- 1.2 This Statement shall be considered as an integral part of the Conditions. Unless the context otherwise requires or this Statement expressly provides otherwise, all words and expressions as defined in the Conditions shall have the same meanings when used or referenced to in this Statement.
- 1.3 The risks of an Investment or Transaction can be substantial. Before making an Investment or entering into a Transaction, you should be satisfied that you fully understand the nature (including contractual relationships involved) of the Investment or Transaction, how it works, the extent of your exposure to risks and the potential losses that you could incur. You should also read the relevant product specific literature and carefully consider whether any proposed Investment or Transaction is suitable for you in the light of your financial resources, experience, objectives for engaging in the Investment or Transaction, ability to bear risks and other relevant circumstances. You should also consult such professional advisers (including legal, tax, financial and accounting) as may be appropriate.
- 1.4 Except where the Bank has expressly undertaken to the contrary, the Bank does not act as your adviser, assumes no fiduciary responsibility towards you, and is not obliged to give you any advice or make any recommendation or suggestion to you. Even if the Bank provides advice, recommendations and suggestions on your request or otherwise, you must remain ultimately responsible to conduct your own independent investigation into, and make your own appraisal of, any proposed Investment or Transaction, and you should rely only on your own judgment in entering into any Investment or Transaction. Any sensitivity analysis which may be provided by the Bank is for the purpose of general illustration only and is not to be treated as the Bank's view on how the market will move in the future.
- 1.5 As such, the burden of all risks involved in any Investment or Transaction will be borne by you, and the Bank is not responsible for any Loss which you incur, of whatever nature and howsoever arising.
- 1.6 The Bank acts simultaneously for a large number of clients, as well as for its own account. As such, conflicts of interest cannot be completely avoided.

2 GENERAL INVESTMENT RISKS

Market and pricing risks

- 2.1 The prices of Investments and the value of Transactions are subject to the risks of market fluctuations.
- 2.2 Because prices and characteristics of over-the-counter transactions are often individually negotiated, there is often no central source for obtaining prices and there can be inefficiencies in the pricing of such Transactions. The Bank makes no representation or warranty that its prices will always be the best prices available to you.
- 2.3 Under certain circumstances, the specifications of outstanding contracts (including the exercise price of an option) may be modified by an exchange or clearing house to reflect changes in the underlying interest.
- 2.4 Trading on one electronic trading system may differ not only from trading in an open outcry market but also from trading on other electronic trading systems. If you undertake Transactions on an electronic trading system, you will be exposed to risks associated with the system, including the failure of hardware and software. The result of any system failure may be that your order is either not executed according to your Instructions or not executed at all.

Off-exchange transaction risks

- 2.5 In effecting an off-exchange Transaction, the Bank may be acting as your counterparty. Off-exchange Transactions may involve increased risks. It may be difficult or impossible to liquidate an existing position, to assess the value, to determine a fair price or to assess the exposure to risk. Off-exchange Transactions may be less regulated or subject to a separate regulatory regime, compared to on-exchange Transactions. In particular, but without limitation, funds placed with a broker for the purpose of off-exchange Transactions may not enjoy the same level of protection as funds placed for the purposes of margining a contract on an organised exchange. You should therefore ensure that you are familiar with the protections accorded to monies (including margin funds) or assets, particularly in the event of the insolvency or bankruptcy of a custodian or holder of margin. Where the Bank is your counterparty, the Bank may make a profit from a Transaction which results in a Loss to you.
- 2.6 An off-exchange Transaction generally cannot be assigned or transferred without the consent of the counterparty.
- 2.7 The Bank is generally under no obligation to repurchase an Investment or close-out or repurchase a Transaction or enter into an offsetting Transaction with you. As off-exchange Transactions are not fungible, entering into an offsetting Transaction may not entirely negate your exposure.
- 2.8 Before you undertake such Transactions, you should familiarise yourself with the applicable rules and attendant risks.

Foreign exchange risks

- 2.9 Fluctuations in foreign currency rates will have an impact on your profit and loss where an Investment or Transaction involves a foreign currency element. For foreign currency investments or deposits, fluctuations in the exchange rates could impact the amount of interest (if any) earned and adverse exchange rate movements could even erase interest earnings completely. Earnings on foreign currency deposits will depend on the exchange rates prevailing at the time of their maturity. You may experience Losses when you convert your foreign currency proceeds back to your home currency.
- 2.10 A wide range of factors can affect foreign currency rates. They include general movements in local and international capital and stock, prevailing and anticipated economic conditions (e.g. interest rates, investor sentiment), political and natural events and any other events and factors outside the control of the Bank.

Credit risks

- 2.11 Your Investments (and Transactions with counterparties other than the Bank) are generally not the obligations of or guaranteed by the Bank and are subject to the risks of the issuer or counterparty, including but not limited to, failure by such issuer or counterparty to make good, valid or timely delivery or payment to you. The obligations of the issuer or counterparty will often be unsecured.

Emerging markets risks

- 2.12 Investments in emerging countries (including those located in Asia, Africa, Latin America and Eastern Europe) may yield high returns but may also carry high investment risks. Such risks include political risks (including increased risk of armed-conflict, terrorism or civil wars, nationalisation or confiscation of assets, restriction of your rights of ownership or rights of disposal, or decline in the value of assets as a result of state intervention in industry or trade or the introduction of state monitoring and control mechanisms), risks of economic instability, heightened levels of the general risks described above (e.g. credit risk, exchange rate risk, liquidity risk, inflation risk, etc.), greater prevalence of unsavoury market practices (e.g. insider trading) and poor regulation and supervision and laws and regulations which afford inadequate protection and safeguards to investors. Certain emerging markets may also have a high level of dependency on the price trends of commodities.

Country risks

- 2.13 Making an Investment or entering into Transaction in a jurisdiction where you are not a resident may expose you to additional risk. Such jurisdiction may be subject to rules which may offer different or diminished investor protection. Your local regulatory authority will be unable to compel the enforcement of local rules in other jurisdictions where Investments are made or your Transactions have been effected. Before you acquire an Investment or enter into a Transaction in another jurisdiction, you should familiarise yourself with any applicable rules in that particular jurisdiction, consulting your own professional advisers as may be necessary, notably for details about any type of redress available to you.
- 2.14 Some jurisdictions may impose exchange controls or other limitations or restrictions and Investments or Transactions may be made in currencies which are not fully convertible. In certain cases, this may cause payments to be made to you in the local currency instead of the original invested, transacted or deposited currency. This may also result in the inability to perform outward remittances of funds from such a jurisdiction, which can affect the value of your Investment, Transaction or deposit or your ability to enjoy its benefit.

Liquidity and market disruption risks

- 2.15 Adverse market conditions (including suspension of trading, extreme market conditions, failure of telecommunications or electronic systems, and events commonly known as “force majeure”) may result in your not being able to effect Investments or Transactions, liquidate all or part of your Investments or Transactions, assess a value or your exposure or determine a fair price, as and when you require. This may also arise from the rules in certain markets (for example, the rules of a particular exchange may provide for “circuit breakers” where trading is suspended or restricted at times of rapid price movements). Transactions on an organised exchange are therefore not risk-free. If you have sold options, this may increase the risk of Loss.
- 2.16 Most open-outcry and electronic trading facilities are supported by computer-based component systems for the order-routing, execution, matching, registration or clearing of trades. As with all facilities and systems, they are vulnerable to temporary disruption or failure. The result of any system failure may be that your order is either not executed according to your Instructions or not executed at all. Your ability to recover certain Losses may be subject to limits on liability imposed by the system provider, the market, the clearing house and/or member firms. Such limits may vary.
- 2.17 On many exchanges, the performance of a Transaction by your broker (or any Third Party with whom he is dealing on your behalf) may be supported or guaranteed by an exchange or its clearing house. However, this support or guarantee is unlikely in most circumstances to provide full cover and may not protect you completely if your broker or another party defaults on its obligations to you.

Risk that limitation orders may not limit loss

- 2.18 Placing contingent orders, such as “stop-loss” or “stop-limit” orders, will not necessarily limit your Losses to the intended amounts, as it may be impossible to execute such orders under adverse market conditions.
- 2.19 Strategies using combinations of positions, such as “spread” and “straddle” positions, may be as risky as taking simple “long” or “short” positions.

Margin and leveraged transactions risks

- 2.20 Investments or Transactions may sometimes involve a high degree of leverage. This can work against you as well as for you. A small market movement can produce large losses as well as gains.
- 2.21 You may be required to furnish margin when entering into an Investment or Transaction, in particular, leveraged transactions (and for the avoidance of doubt, such margin may equal or exceed the full amount of your actual or potential exposure to the Bank). “Margin” refers to an amount of money, securities, property or other collateral, representing a part of the value of the contract or agreement to be entered into, which is deposited by a party to an Investment or Transaction to ensure performance of the terms of the Investment or Transaction. Even if the amount of the initial margin deposit may be small relative to the value of the Investment or Transaction, if the market moves against you, you may not only sustain a total loss of the initial margin deposit and any additional fund deposited to maintain your position, you may also incur further liability to the Bank or other counterparty or sustain further Losses. You may also be called upon to provide additional margin or “top up” your margin by substantial amounts at short notice to maintain your position, failing which your position may be liquidated at a loss, and you will be liable for any resulting deficit in your Account.

Tax and legal affairs

- 2.22 Before acquiring an Investment or entering into a Transaction, you should understand the tax implications of doing so. In particular, income from an Investment or Transaction may be subject to withholding, income, capital gains or other taxes in the country of the issuer or counterparty of such Investment or Transaction. Unless the issuer or counterparty agrees to “gross-up”, investors may only receive payments less the applicable withholding tax or investors’ after-tax returns may be adversely affected.
- 2.23 You have sole responsibility for the management of your tax and legal affairs, including making any applicable filing and payment and complying with any applicable laws and regulations. The Bank has not and will not provide you with tax or legal advice and it is recommended that you obtain your own independent tax and legal advice tailored to your individual circumstances. The tax treatment of Investments or Transactions may be complex, and the level and basis of taxation may alter during the term of any product.

Impact of fees and charges

- 2.24 Before you begin to trade, you should obtain a clear explanation of all commissions, fees and other charges for which you will be liable. These charges will affect your net profit (if any) or increase your Loss.

Custody service risks and risks arising from placement of margin funds

- 2.25 You should understand that the Bank or a Third Party Custodian may appoint foreign sub-custodians or depositories to hold or safekeep your Investments, and that your monies may be placed with a clearing house or other Third Party for the purposes of executing an Investment or Transaction. In this respect, there may be additional risks, including risks arising from the operation of foreign law, rules and regulations.
- 2.26 You should therefore familiarise yourself with the protection accorded to custody assets and margin funds in the jurisdiction in which you invest or transact, particularly in the insolvency or bankruptcy of an issuer, custodian or intermediary. The extent to which you may recover your money or assets may be governed by specific legislation or local rules. In some jurisdictions, assets which had been specifically identifiable as your own will be pro-rated for purposes of distribution in the event of a shortfall. While the Bank will exercise commercially reasonable efforts to segregate your Investments and funds from the Bank’s investments held with sub-custodians, there may be instances when some sub-custodians may not recognise such segregation.

AUTHORITY AND INDEMNITY IN RESPECT OF TELEPHONE, FACSIMILE OR ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS (“Authority and Indemnity”)

- 1 The terms and conditions set out in this Authority and Indemnity shall be considered as an integral part of the Conditions. Unless the context otherwise requires or this Authority and Indemnity expressly provides otherwise, all words and expressions as defined in the Conditions shall have the same meanings when used or referred to in this Authority and Indemnity.
- 2 Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions in Clauses 4 and 5 of Section A (GENERAL TERMS) of the Conditions, this Authority and Indemnity shall apply in respect of each Instruction you or any Authorised Person give(s) to the Bank by way of telephone, facsimile or electronic communication (“Specified Communication Means”) and in respect of each Communication communicated by the Bank to you or any Authorised Person by the Specified Communication Means. For the avoidance of doubt, any Specified Communication Means used by you or any Authorised Person to give Instruction or send any other Communication to the Bank must be a mode of communication that is pre-approved by the Bank in its sole discretion.
- 3 You hereby request and authorise: (a) the Bank (but the Bank is not obliged) to act on any Instructions, orders and/or communication (“Communications”) given or purported to be given by you or any Authorised Person from time to time by the Specified Communication Means for any purpose (including but not limited to, the operation of all your Accounts (including any retail or Maybank Private account) maintained with the Bank and in respect of any facilities or banking arrangements with the Bank); and (b) the Bank and any of its officers to communicate to you or any Authorised Person by the Specified Communication Means.
- 4 You understand and acknowledge that there are risks involved in sending and receiving Communications to and from the Bank via the Specified Communication Means and that these are not secure means of sending Communications. You hereby agree that all such risks shall be fully borne by you and the Bank will not be liable for any Loss of any nature whatsoever and howsoever suffered or incurred (and whether direct or indirect, consequential or special, and including any loss of profit or interest) as a result of sending and/or receiving Communications via such means, provided the Bank has acted in good faith.
- 5 In consideration of the aforesaid and the Bank agreeing to act on any Communications sent by you or any Authorised Person by Specified Communication Means, you agree and undertake:
 - a) that the Bank is authorised (but not obliged) to record any telephone conversations between you or any other person and the Bank, in writing or by tape or other means as the Bank may determine, and the Bank’s records shall be conclusive and binding on you. The Bank may dispose of such written records and erase such tapes after the expiration of such period in accordance with Applicable Law;
 - b) that the Bank may (but shall not be obliged to) require any Communications to contain an identification code or test specified by the Bank from time to time and you shall ensure the secrecy and security of such code or test and shall be responsible for any improper use of such code or test;
 - c) that the Bank may, under circumstances determined by the Bank, require from you or the Authorised Person such original documents or confirmation of any Communication in such form as the Bank may specify before acting on the same;
 - d) that the Bank may at its absolute discretion, without notice to you or the Authorised Person and without any responsibility or liability to you or any other party whatsoever, refuse to act or delay in acting on any Communication: (a) even if you or the Authorised Person sent such Communication using Specified Communication Means that was pre-approved by the Bank; and (b) in any circumstances as the Bank may deem appropriate, including without limitation, in the absence or delay of any code, test or confirmation specified by the Bank pursuant to sub-Clause (b) or (c) above or where any Communication is, in the Bank’s opinion, unclear or ambiguous or which may cause it to contravene any directive or Applicable Law for the time being in force;
- e) to sign any additional documentation required by the Bank if the Bank’s internal controls require you to sign such documentation for the purpose of giving Instructions to the Bank on remittances or Transactions or Investments;
- f) that the Bank will not be liable for any failure or delay in acting on any Communication by reason of any breakdown or failure of computer, transmission or communication equipment or facilities for whatsoever reason, or any other breakdown of or delay or error in transmission or communication for any reason or cause beyond the reasonable control of the Bank;
- g) that provided that the Bank officer concerned believed in good faith the Communication to be genuine at the time it was given, the Bank may (but shall not be obliged to) act as aforesaid without inquiry as to the identity or authority of the person giving or purporting to give any Communication or the authenticity of any Communication and may treat the same as fully authorised by and binding on you, regardless of the circumstances prevailing at the time of the Communication or amount of the transaction and notwithstanding any error, misunderstanding, lack of clarity, fraud, forgery or lack of authority in relation thereto, and without requiring further confirmation or authentication or separate independent verification in any form;
- h) (if there are two or more of you, jointly and severally) to fully and completely indemnify the Bank on demand against all actions, proceedings, Losses and all other liabilities of whatsoever nature or description which may be brought against or made or taken or incurred or suffered by the Bank in connection with (whether directly or indirectly) or from the Bank: (a) acting on any of the Communications given or purported to be given by the Specified Communication Means; and/or (b) not acting on any Communications in any circumstances as the Bank may deem appropriate; and
- i) that this Authority and Indemnity shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Singapore and you hereby irrevocably submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Singapore courts.
- 6 You hereby agree and confirm that this Authority and Indemnity shall supersede any arrangement and/or agreement entered into between you and the Bank in respect of any Communication given by the Specified Communication Means, unless otherwise determined by the Bank at its discretion.
- 7 The rights and remedies of the Bank under this Authority and Indemnity shall be in addition to and shall not in any way prejudice or affect the rights and/or remedies of the Bank in law or in any other agreement, deed or document or to which the Bank may be otherwise entitled.

- (b) where you do not specify a requirement otherwise, the Bank shall be entitled to act on an Internet Banking Instruction from any single Authorised User or of any one of the joint account holders (if given in respect of a Joint Account).

3 The Internet Banking Service

3.1 You acknowledge that the Internet Banking Service, and the Services provided via the Internet Banking Service, are provided on an "as is", "as available" basis only and that the time periods during which such Service may be available are subject to change. 3.4 You agree to pay all fees and charges for the use of the Internet Banking Service imposed by the Bank from time to time. You acknowledge that the Bank reserves the right to vary the fees and charges (including introducing new fees and charges) from time to time by giving you thirty (30) days' prior notice. You authorise the Bank to debit such fees and charges incurred by you for the use of the Internet Banking Service from any Account(s) (whether single or joint) which you have with the Bank. If there are insufficient funds in your

3.6 You acknowledge and agree that where an Application for the Internet Banking Service has been accepted by the Bank and that Application is in respect of a Joint Account, each joint account holder shall be jointly and severally liable to the Bank for any Internet Banking Instructions effected or performed or processed through the Internet Banking Service.

3.7 You shall notify the Bank (using only such form or forms as the Bank may prescribe) of the mandate (or change of mandate) under which you and/or your Authorised Users may give Internet Banking Instructions via the Internet Banking Service. You acknowledge and confirm that any such mandate (or change of mandate) shall not be effective until and unless received, accepted and implemented by the Bank within such time which the Bank would reasonably require (taking into account all circumstances then prevailing). You further acknowledge and confirm that such mandate (or change of mandate) shall be separate and distinct from, and shall be without prejudice to, any other mandate in respect of your Account(s) otherwise in force apart from these Terms for Internet Banking Service and/or any other Service you have requested for.

The Bank does not investigate, monitor or endorse such Other Sites or the contents thereof and does not warrant the accuracy, adequacy or reliability of the contents of such Other Sites. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Terms for Internet Banking Service, no warranty of any kind, implied, express or statutory, including but not limited to, the warranties of non-infringement of third party rights, title, satisfactory quality, merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose and freedom from computer virus or other invasive or damaging code, is given in conjunction with the Internet Banking Service, the Content and/or the Security Devices.

- (a) the security of any Security Device may have been compromised;
- (b) any Security Device has become known or been revealed to any person other than the particular Authorised User to whom such Security Device was made available by the Bank for use ("Designated User");

5.3 In the event a Security Notification has been given, you understand that it is your responsibility to ascertain which of your Internet Banking Instructions which have not been processed are valid, and if you wish such valid Internet Banking Instructions to be carried out, you shall re-instruct the Bank, by notice in writing faxed or sent by post to the Bank, to carry out those Internet Banking Instructions.

5.4 You acknowledge that the Bank shall be entitled to deactivate or revoke the use of any one or more of the Security Devices at any time without assigning any reason and without prior notice to you.

5.5 You acknowledge and confirm that you shall be bound by all Internet Banking Instructions and transactions resulting from any Internet Banking Instructions made which are referable to any Compromised Security Device until such time as the Bank has received the Security Notification from you and has effected cancellation of the Compromised Security Device, and accordingly, you agree that you will be liable for all such transactions which were processed by the Bank prior to or at the time of such cancellation, or which the Bank, notwithstanding its reasonable endeavours, was unable to stop the processing of.

5.6 You hereby agree that the Bank shall not be liable in contract, tort (including negligence or breach of statutory duty) or otherwise for any Loss whatsoever (whether foreseeable or not) suffered or incurred by you as a result of:

- (a) any transaction resulting from any Internet Banking Instruction made by you or any of your Authorised Users, or purportedly made by you or any of your Authorised Users (or by any of your authorised officers, employees, agents or representatives), and referable to such Compromised Security Device and which was

You understand that the transmission of Internet Banking Instructions to the Bank through the Internet Banking Service may not be received by the Bank for reasons beyond the Bank’s reasonable control, including but not limited to, any mechanical, software, computer, telecommunications or electronic failure. You further acknowledge that unless you receive confirmation of receipt of the same from the Bank, Internet Banking Instructions may not have been received and accordingly, may not be processed or accepted by the Bank. 8.2 If any Relevant Individuals should withdraw their consent to any or all use of their personal data, depending on the nature of the withdrawal request, the Bank may not be in a position to grant the Internet Banking Service applied for to you. Such withdrawal may accordingly constitute a repudiatory breach of your obligations under these Terms for Internet Banking Service and the Bank may upon notice to you terminate the Internet Banking Service and these Terms for Internet Banking Service without incurring any liability and without prejudice to the Bank’s other rights and remedies at law against you.

8.3 To the extent that the Relevant Individuals are providing their personal data to the Bank through you in connection with the Internet Banking Service, you acknowledge and agree that you are responsible for ensuring that each Relevant Individual consents to the collection, use, disclosure and/or processing of their personal data by the Bank and the Bank’s authorised service providers for purposes set out in the Bank’s Data Protection Policy which the Bank may update from time to time. You shall furnish each Relevant Individual with a copy of these Terms for Internet Banking Service, the Conditions and the Bank’s Data Protection Policy.
